KNOW AN AMAZING KID?

The Hillsboro Tribune is now accepting nominations for boys and girls who make a difference in their community. One Amazing Kid from each of the communities served by the Pamplin Media Group will be honored at a special regional event in May, and all nominees will be recognized in a special edition of the Hillsboro Tribune. Nominees should be from elementary school through high school senior. While the nominee may be accomplished in academics or sports, community service will be one of the primary criteria for selection.

To submit a nomination:

- Provide the names of the nominee and their parents, along with their phone number and/or email address.
- In 500 words or less, tell us about the nominee and what makes them a worthy candidate to represent our local community as an Amazing Kid.
- See nomination form for details.

Nomination deadline is Feb. 29, 2016
